

RICCARDO MARSELLI is full professor in Economics at Parthenope University. His research interests are in the field of law and economics, with a focus on the socio-economic determinants of crime rates, the efficiency of the deterrence system and the efficacy of alternative dispute resolution systems. Every two years he co-edits the report on crime and security in Naples.

Recent publications:

- Experts and arbitration outcomes: insights from public procurement contract disputes (2022), joint with C. Detotto, B. McCannon, M. Vannini, CRENoS Working Paper
- La corruzione in una prospettiva economica: problemi nuovi e antichi rimedi? (2021), in Di Gennaro G. e R. Marselli (a cura di) III Rapporto sulla criminalità e sicurezza a Napoli, FedOA Press
- L'economia illegale (2021), con R. Aurilia, G. Di Gennaro, D. Barba, M. D'Ambrosio, G. Pastore in SVIMEZ, L'economia e la società del Mezzogiorno. Rapporto 2021, Il Mulino

For more information visit: <http://marselli.altervista.org>